

September at The Frog Pad

FARM • FOOD • WELLNESS • COMMUNITY

Hosted at The Frog Pad — Lakeway, Texas

Two intimate, hands-on experiences designed to bring the community together around good food, meaningful conversation, and a bigger purpose.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10

6:00–8:00 PM

Bake for a Bigger Purpose

A Hands-On Challah Bread Making Workshop

With Rosh Hashanah beginning September 11, gather around the table and learn the tradition of making beautiful, braided challah. You'll shape your own loaf from scratch, with plenty of time to connect, enjoy the process, and take home something delicious to share.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24

6:00–8:00 PM

Build Your Own Fire Cider

A Hands-On Wellness Workshop for Cold & Flu Season

As the weather turns, join us at The Frog Pad to build your own fire cider — a traditional apple cider vinegar tonic infused with horseradish, garlic, ginger, citrus, and warming spices, used for generations to support the immune system through the cold and flu season.

You'll bottle your own jar to steep and take home, plus enjoy a warm seasonal tasting and conversation on natural wellness as we head into fall.
