

September at The Frog Pad

FARM • FOOD • WELLNESS • COMMUNITY

Hosted at The Frog Pad — Lakeway, Texas

Two intimate, hands-on experiences designed to bring women and the community together around good food, meaningful conversation, and a bigger purpose.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10

6:00–8:00 PM

Bake for a Bigger Purpose

A Hands-On Challah Bread Making Workshop

With Rosh Hashanah beginning September 11, gather around the table and learn the tradition of making beautiful, braided challah. You'll shape your own loaf from scratch, with plenty of time to connect, enjoy the process, and take home something delicious to share.

Women's Wellness: Pasta + Wine

An Evening of Food, Connection & Well-Being

Take an evening for yourself. Join us for a hands-on pasta-making experience paired with a delicious meal, wine, and meaningful conversation centered around women's health and wellness — featuring Leah Busby of Sleep Cycle Center, sharing insights on the importance of sleep, rest, and restoration.

With World Heart Day and National Women's Health & Fitness Day both taking place in September, this is a chance to gather around the table and focus on the whole woman: health, connection, nourishment, and well-being.
